Jacqueline has also assisted students of media, journalism, and production with her time free of charge with interviews where this was part of the training and assessment of their courses, and despite the fact that very often, she knew in advance that no one but the course lecturer and class mates would ever get to see or read the final resulting piece.

Visual, Visionary Art

Self taught, life-long spirit artist, Jacqueline has been drawing and painting what she sees in spirit since early childhood. This has included painting the images of people up to 35 years before she ever met them. Over 1,000 of Jacqueline's art pieces hang in homes around the world.

Jacqueline Close Moore – awards, media, and presenter experience

She perceives and draws or paints energies and spirit from a range of dimensional realms and has portrayed peoples:- Animal guides / totems, Angelic connections, Astrological themes and archetypes, Aura, Dreams, Earth energy connections, Deities, Gods and Goddesses, Master Energies And Higher Vibrational Connections, Past lives, Spirit guides, Soul essence, Your personal tarot card and archetypal energy, or Your Personal Shamanic Healing Talisman. Portrayal of the specific healing energy most closely needed at this time as through nature, the elements and the spiritual energy in nature.

Jacqueline has often completed these spirit art readings with no more information about the person than the first name they gave her and has done this at times without ever meeting them. Some clients write in with questions as well, and these days, Jacqueline asks for date of birth as a calibration and opening ritual.

Her art work has featured in magazines and greeting cards, and also on murals and as 2 metre tall tarot cards of two the major arcana cards at the Melbourne International Tarot Conference in 2005. The two cards she painted became correct predictions of their own, and one is painted both on the front and back, in hanging canvas and is covered with a variety of media including acrylic paint, objects, natural fibres, and dried herbs all as part of the piece. Both major arcana pieces, Jacqueline presented on stage to the Melbourne International Tarot Conference organisers, and members in the audience in gatherings in 2014 and 2015, as both a presentation of the visual art piece, and also as a performance art in spoken word, and in song in handing it over to the organisers. Both pieces became the accurate predictions of multiple future events that concluded at the time of the public showing of the artworks at the conference in 2005, held in Melbourne.
